Memo to Hci f'Xi Canada Century Riders

New for 2018

Maple is the Start Point

Moving to Maple from York makes sense for several reasons:

- Traffic has become increasingly busy in the wide Freeway 407/Highway 7 corridor north of York.
- Going 13 km up the road to Maple means it will be a short ride up Keele Street to the point where it becomes a country Road.
- Those 13 km allow us to make some route changes to skirt a couple of hilly sections on the 100-km route.
- A revised 100 km route will allow us to have better spacing for the second rest stop.
- Maple has more pre- and post-ride services close by, including the Maple Bakery that has been a favourite cyclist stop for decades.
- The new Vaughan subway station will be open in 2018, allowing us to continue having a start point for those who want to take TTC to a luggage pickup point. (A Vaughan subway start adds 3 km to the day, the same as the Finch subway station start, by riding north on Jane. It's 8 km added to go to Maple and then north on Keele.)

See you in May!
